George Tsiopras Joining HealthTrust, Inc. As New Chief Financial Officer

HealthTrust Inc. announced today that George Tsiopras, formerly Chief Financial Officer (CFO) at the NH Liquor Commission, will be joining their team as Chief Financial Officer. He begins work on September 9, 2013.

A Certified Public Accountant, Tsiopras obtained his Master's in Business Administration in Finance and Information Technology from Southern New Hampshire University. His undergraduate degree in Business Administration is from the University of New Hampshire, Whittemore School of Business and Economics.

Tsiopras has been CFO at the Liquor Commission since 2001. Before that, he served as an Audit Manager and Financial Auditor for the NH Legislative Budget Assistant's Office for 5 years. He has extensive experience directing financial operations, safeguarding assets and setting appropriate financial controls for the organizations within which he has worked.

He will be replacing Sandal Keeffe, who is retiring as CFO after 23 years with the LGC and its Risk Pools. "We are grateful for the many years of service Sandal gave the LGC," Tom Enright, Chair of the LGC Board said, " She dedicated her career to helping the taxpayers of the towns, cities, counties and schools of NH through the work of the NHMA, HealthTrust and Property-Liability Trust." Sandal's retirement date is August 31, 2013. She has, however, agreed to be available through September to ensure a smooth transition. Her post retirement plans include spending time with her grandchildren and quilting.
